章节摘录

It is difficult to imagine what they would be like if there were no love for each other. Love is the caring and concern for , and understanding of other people and the acceptance of their strengths and weaknesses. To love and to be loved is the true happiness in life. The love for your parents is an exceptionally special love. This love as any other sincere love, must be honest and be shared by both parents and children. Children can always share their happiness and sadness with their parents. The love of parents is a great support in their children's lives. It will remain with them and help them overcome all difficulties and make them feel secure. The children's love for their parents is the parents' best reward. The love of friends is always important to us. There is hardly anyone who can live without friends. When we grow up and leave home, friends take the place of parents. The love of friends may also endure for all of our lives. Even though we may not have the opportunity to visit each other, it may be kept alive over many years by correspondence. Words Bank Find the words below for each of these meanings from the text. loose the letters a person sends and receives exceptionally used before an adjective or adverb to emphasize how strong or unusual the quality is endure not firmly fixed where it should be; become separated from something correspondence to continue to exist for a long time Grammar Tip even though从属连词, 意为"即使, 即令……, 也……", 引导让步状语从句。Even though则多以从 句之内容为前提,是已经存在的事实情况。even if的从句中含有强烈的假定性。如: Even though she was a little late, we still waited for her.即使她来晚了,我们还是要等她。 Experience Courage means moving forward _____ you are afraid that you might not accomplish what you want.
