《中国的互联网与网民》

内容概要

《中国的互联网与网民(英文版)》内容简介：On August 4, 2007, officials from Weinan City, Shaanxi Province, were given an unusual test based on the Internet. The test was supervised by Liu Xinwen, the City Party Committee Secretary-General. Liu personally assigned topics for the test, which aimed to test the local officials' capabilities with regard to online searching, editing and email sending. When the "examinees" finished the test, they were required to submit the answers by email.
