Reading comprehension      Americans with small families own a small car or a large one. If both parents areworking, they usually have two cars. When the family is large, one of the cars is soldand they will buy a van.A small car can hold four persons and a large car can hold six persons but it is verycrowded. A van can hold seven persons easily, so a family with three children could asktheir grandparents to go on a holiday travel together.Americans call vans motor homes. A motor home is always used for holidays.When a family are traveling to the mountains or to the seaside, they can live in theirmotor home for a few days or weeks. All the members of a big family can enjoy ahappier life when they are traveling together. That is why motor homes have becomevery popular. In America there are many parks for motor homes.      True or fals      1. In America a large family usually owns a small car.      2. In America a van is useful to a large family because its bigger.      3. A family with a baby usually owns a motor home.      4.
