《飞跃（下册）》

内容概要

《飞跃·汉语中级教程(简、繁体汉字)(学生用书)(下册)》主要内容简介：Feiyue Intermediate Chinese, a set of two student's textbooks and one teacher's book, is intended for English-speaking students in college and high school. Feiyue means to fly forward and serves here as a metaphor for the progression that will occur in students' Chinese proficiency levels after actively working through the meticulously designed exercises and activities in these textbooks.

These textbooks have the following features: Lead-in pictures for each lesson which highlight their subject matter and the key words. Each lesson consists of a dialog and a narrative passage in both simplified and traditional characters. For each new word, in addition to a pinyin transcription and an English explanation, parts of speech and examples of usage are also provided. Each lesson integrates an array of exercises and activities in listening, speaking, reading, writing, and typing Chinese. Character components are illustrated; explanations of language points are simple, precise and practical. Pictures and real-life materials accompany the lessons. SDs in MP3 format are provided for all texts and listening exercises.
