《中国文化档案》

内容概要

《中国文化档案:人文景观》内容简介：The Embroidery Compound is an enclosed courtyard with a little garden in which are a pool and a pavilion which commands a good view. It is the entire living space for Chen Jingyuan. All her artistic works on display here, including the poems, paintings and embroidery by this talented girl, seem to articulate her sorrow and loneliness to today's visitors. The bleak compound gnawed away at her youth; before she turned 30, she died of grief, like a tiny star falling onto this little yard.
